Article XI – Liability

Item	Description
A	Each archer is responsible for any and all of his actions at any tournament. This responsibility applies especially to the result of accidents caused by the archer's equipment. This liability is in excess of club liability insurance.
B	Clubs hosting NFAA/IFAA sponsored tournaments must have approved liability insurance.
C	NFAA endorsed insurance is for clubs and pro shops that are affiliated with NFAA. The club would be covered for liability in case a club activity caused damage to someone's property. There is also a secondary medical coverage that would pay if a person was injured during a club activity. It is secondary, so the individual's regular medical coverage would be used first. State organizations are covered the same way as the clubs. The NFAA also offers a $5,000 liability coverage for NFAA members while they may be bowhunting on property they do not own. This does not cover the bowhunter; it covers the landowner's property for damage that may be caused by the bowhunter. This coverage is included in the regular NFAA/State membership dues, no additional charge.

Article XII – Legal Committee

Item	Description
A	The legal committee of IFAA shall consist of the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • President • Vice President of Field • Vice President of Hunting • Secretary

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Treasurer • Immediate past President as advisor • NFAA Director
B	The duties of the legal committee shall be to study and consider the constitutionality of any proposed change to the IFAA constitution.
C	Further duties of the committee shall be to keep abreast of the NFAA Constitution and By-laws, and never knowingly permit any change or alteration of the IFAA Constitution to directly conflict with the NFAA. If so informed that IFAA has an article that does conflict, the committee shall have the authority to make necessary changes and inform the membership of said changes.
D	The legal committee will update and review the Constitution annually.

Article XIII – State Directors and Divisions

Item	Description
A	The state will be split into eight (8) districts with boundaries as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Article XI - Conflict of Interest

Article 1 – Purpose

The purpose of the conflict of Interest policy is to protect the Indiana Field Archery Association (IFAA) interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II – Definitions

1. Interested Person
 - a. Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is a interested person.
2. Financial Interest
 - a. A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:
 - i. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which Organization has a transaction or arrangement.
 - ii. A compensation arrangement with the Organization or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement.

- iii. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, and entity or individual with which the Organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.
- b. Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.
- c. A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III

1. Duty to Disclose
 - a. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.
2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exist.
 - a. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.
3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest
 - a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
 - b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
 - c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
 - d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested director whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.
4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy
 - a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable to believe a member has failed to disclosed actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
 - b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member had failed to disclosed an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article IV – Records of proceedings

1. The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:
 - a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial

- interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest if fact existed.
- b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the context of the discussion, include and alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V – Compensation

1. A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
2. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matter and who receives compensations directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
3. No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensations, directly or indirectly, from the Organization, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

Article VI – Annual Statements

1. Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:
 - a. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy.
 - b. Has read and understands the policy,
 - c. Has agreed to comply with the policy,
 - d. Understands the Organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption if must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more if it's tax-exempt purposes.

Article VII – Periodic Reviews

1. To insure the Organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize it tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum. Include the following subjects:
 - a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information and the results of arm's length bargaining.
 - b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Organization's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payment for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Article VII – Use of Outside Experts

1. When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, the Organization may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.
