

5th Annual Hoosier 690

December 1-3, 2023

Answers to some FAQ's:

- Our tournament is a two-day event. You MUST shoot both days to win money or trophies.
- Saturday will be a 60 arrow 5-spot round on the blue face, with X's counting as 6 points.
- Sunday will be a 30 arrow Vegas round, with X's counting as 11 points.
- You may only shoot in one division.
- The Pro division is an open championship division, like the Vegas Shoot. You do NOT need an NFAA Pro card to enter. You will not earn pro points if you do not have an active pro membership.
- If you have an NFAA pro card, you MUST shoot in the Pro division.

- The winners of 3 Pro divisions will receive a bonus payment ON TOP OF the payout in accordance with the NFAA pay schedule (based upon 75% of entry fees collected per respective class).
- 4 of the open money divisions will share a $1000 winning bonus: Adult Male Freestyle, Adult Female Freestyle, Senior Male Freestyle, Bowhunter Freestyle. The winner of each class will receive $250 ON TOP OF the payout in accordance with the NFAA pay schedule (based upon 50% of entry fees collected per respective class).
- There will be an open money division class for Senior Female Freestyle and Barebow Recurve, based on expressed interest. They will not be eligible for a bonus payout this year but will be paid according to the NFAA pay scale out of the entry fees collected in their respective classes.
- There is not a separate young adult money division. Youth or young adults who wish to shoot for money may enter the Adult Money Division.
- The Bowhunter Freestyle Money division is a combined gender and age division. There is not a separate female or senior bowhunter money division.
- The Barebow Recurve Money division is a combined gender and age division. There is not a separate female or senior barebow recurve money division.
- We will break ties in the Pro and Money divisions ONLY by shoot off. The shoot-offs will only take place immediately following the respective line time if necessary to determine who will win money, and in what order the money will be paid out.
- We will follow the NFAA class schedule for the age group and class designations. If your age and class combination is not available at registration, check the shooting classes chart.
- The 11:30 am line WILL fill up on Saturday. Register early if you prefer to shoot at that time.
- The Sunday schedule will be posted when you arrive at the tournament. Sunday's times will be determined later based upon registration numbers.

- Sunday assignments will be peer grouped.
- The payouts for the Pro and Money classes are based on the advertised entry fees: $200 for pro and $100 for money. The online registration has added 8% to the entry fees to cover our fees to Rcherz, the ITAA for tablet rental, and Stripe processing.
